19. Page 2, lines 1 through 22.

Strike: subsection (6) in its entirety

Insert: (7) (a) For an individual whose household income is $75,000 or more but less than $97,000, the amount of the credit is equal to the credit calculated under this section multiplied by the decimal equivalent of a percentage figure according to the following table:

Household Income	Percentage of Credit Allowed
$86,001 - $96,999	25%
$97,000 or more	0%

(b) For tax years beginning after December 31, 2011, the department shall, by November 1 of each year, multiply the household income amounts contained in subsection (7)(a) by the inflation factor for that tax year and round the product to the nearest $100. The resulting adjusted household income amounts are effective for that tax year and must be used in calculating the tax credit allowed under this section.

(8) As used in [sections 1 and 2], the following definitions apply:

(a) "Eligible student" means a student who is a Montana resident and is eligible to enroll in an elementary, middle school, or secondary school program in Montana and who:

(i) is attending a nonpublic school or entering a nonpublic school or transferring to a nonpublic school from a public school; or

(ii) is currently placed or during the previous fiscal year was placed in foster care under the supervision of the state and is eligible to attend a nonpublic school.

(b) "Income" means income as defined in 15-30-2337(9)(a). Income includes all income received by all individuals of the household while they are members of the household.

(c) "Inflation factor" means a number determined for each tax year by dividing the consumer price index for June of the tax year by the consumer price index for June 2011.

(d) "Qualified school or program" means a school or program that:

(i) is a nonpublic elementary school or secondary school that is located in this state or is a public or private school located in the United States that provides distance learning instruction;

(ii) is accredited or has applied for accreditation or is provisionally accredited by the board of public education, northwest accreditation association, or other nationally recognized accreditation association;

(iii) is not a home school as provided in 20-5-109;

(iv) administers a nationally recognized normative assessment test and makes the results available to parents; and

(v) satisfies the health and safety requirements prescribed by law for private schools in this state."

Following: line 22

Insert: "NEW SECTION. Section 2. Education tax credit -- information return. (1) Each qualified school or program, as defined in [section 1], shall make an information return to the department concerning the credit allowed under [section 1]. The return must show the amount of the tuition paid by an individual for each eligible student and must include the individual's name, address, and social security number or taxpayer identification number. The qualified school or program shall provide the return to the individual making the tuition payment.

(2) The return must be made under rules adopted by the department and in the form and manner prescribed by the department."
